Cancellation fund

Participation in our cancellation fund is optional. Of course, there always is a risk of cancellation or early departure because of illness, death or accident. By participating in our cancellation fund you will get a full reimbursement of camping/caravanning fee or rental charges in case of:

- 1 Death, serious illness or serious injury of yourself, your relatives in the first or second degree or your housemates.
- 2 A new lease or another home.
- 3 Involuntary unemployment of yourself or your partner
 - Application for participation should be done together with the booking.
 - Participation starts after receipt of the participation fee and ends on the final date of the reserved holiday period.
 - In case of an early departure for reasons mentioned above the reimbursement is calculated as from the day of early departure until the final day of booking.
 - Claims for reimbursement should be made in writing within 2 weeks after the cancellation or early departure arose on production of authentic evidence.

Participation fee is 5% of the total camping/caravanning fee or rental charges
